

The Afternoon Tea

Even when dolls were my only guests, I was the queen of afternoon tea. Follow my advice and winning will be a piece of delicate orange sponge cake.

Tips & Hints

- 1 Milk and lemon should never be mixed together in tea. Anyone that does this should be asked to leave. Immediately.
- 2 Make sure to boil the water before guests arrive. Things will only heat up again as soon as they enter the door.
- 3 Gather fresh cut herbs and flowers from your garden and arrange them around the table. Their sweet smell will mix with the sweet smell of your victory.
- 4 Prepare small take-home gifts like cupcakes as a way to say "thank you for acknowledging my superiority".
- 5 The bigger the range of tea on hand, the better your chance of a victory.

Do's & Don't's

- DO place a napkin on your lap.
- DON'T be afraid to lap up praise from your guests.

Drink Recipe

In the heat of the moment, I always cool down with this.

Ginger, lemon and mint iced tea

INGREDIENTS

- 1 lemon
- 1 lime
- 1 head of ginger
- 5 teabags of ginger tea
- 5 teabags of lemon tea
- 1 bunch of mint
- 1 punnet of blueberries

METHOD

1. Brew strong ginger and lemon infusion and let it cool.
2. Pour into a jug, add slices of fresh lemon, lime and ginger, plus a handful of freshly washed mint and blueberries.
3. Fill with ice cubes and serve.
